HGGS HEIDELBERGER GRADUIERTENSCHULE FÜR GEISTES- UND SOZIALWISSENSCHAFTEN

UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG ZUKUNFT SEIT 1386

Dear HGGS colleagues,

I hope you're all doing well and enjoying these pre-spring days!

Last year, we held an academic writing workshop retreat in Michelstadt, which some of our colleagues attended. This week, as a sort of follow-up to that workshop, we'll be holding a session in Heidelberg dedicated exclusively to writing. There won't be a workshop; just a comfortable and relaxed space where you can focus on making progress on your projects (theses, academic articles, applications, papers, immortal literary works, etc.).

Since we will have two spacious and comfortable areas, we want to extend an invitation to all members of the HGGS who did not attend the Michelstadt workshop but want to take advantage of an exclusive and cozy environment to work on your academic projects. You are all welcome!

The writing session is scheduled for this Thursday, March 19, at the Philosophisches Seminar (Schulgasse 6), in two locations: the library room and a standard seminar room! It will be available from 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Since there are no other events besides the writing session, you can arrive at any time during the day. Of course, the earlier you arrive, the more productive your individual writing will be.

If you are interested in attending, we would appreciate it if you could register using the following form (just two questions). This would greatly facilitate some logistical matters:

We hope to have coffee and biscuits available throughout the day!

On Tuesday evening, I will send the final instructions (which are just a few) to everyone who has signed up.

Thank you for your interest in participating in this initiative!

Best regards,

Dr. Cristian Camilo Cuervo
