Congratulations to Hassan Maarfi Poor for organizing the international Georg Lukács Day in Heidelberg on the 21st of October 2025!

Hassan invited several academics and experts from Heidelberg, Cologne, Berlin, Nürnberg and other places and he also received numerable expressions of interest from scholars in Europe, Africa, Latin America and other world regions.

Together with his PhD supervisor, PD Dr. Thomas Petersen, the Chairman of the Lukács Society, Dr. Rüdiger Dannemann, representatives of the City of Heidelberg and other supporters and interested members of the public, Hassan unveiled the commemorative plaque at the house in Keplerstraße 28, Heidelberg-Neuenheim, where Lukács lived for several years.

Guided by the most famous historian of the City of Heidelberg, Michael Buselmeier, the large group then went on a walking tour through Neuenheim to learn more about Lukács times and fellow intellectuals from the early 20th century. The tour resumed after a shared lunch and found its way to the Kant Hall of the Philosophy Seminar.

The evening lectures about the life and the work of Lukács were held by Dr. Rüdiger Dannemann, PD Dr. Thomas Petersen, Prof. Dr. Peter König and Hassan Maarfi Poor. They attracted 50 researchers, PhDs, MA and BA students as well as several members of the general public, and there was a lively discussion after the lectures and a friendly get-together after the academic part. The lectures will be published by the HGGS in 2026.

CONGRATULATIONS TO HASSAN FOR SUCH A SUCCESSFUL EVENT!
